

HUMAN FACTORS IN THE DEFENSE AGAINST TERRORISM: THE CASE OF JORDAN

The Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan, Dead Sea
21st - 23rd November 2016

Organized by

In Partnership with

Speaker Bio & Contribution

Biography

Maj. Gen. (ret.) Jamal MADAIN

Former Director of Military Intelligence, Senior Analyst, Middle East Media and Policy Studies Institute, The Hashemite Kingdom of Jordan

Major General (ret.) Jamal Madain is a Chief of Research in (MEMPSI), specializing in military and security affairs of the MENA region. Before joining the Center, Mr. Madain completed a thirty-four-year career at the Jordanian Armed Forces – JAF / Directorate of Military Intelligence, head of the operational department, head of the analysis department before assigned as a director of military intelligence.

Contribution

Major General (ret.) Jamal Madain, Former Director of Military Intelligence, Senior Analyst of MEMPSI, stressed that in order to keep stability, coordination based on integrated information and communication among all security agencies inside and outside the country is necessary. By analyzing the case of Syria, he showed how cooperation in border security is the key to achieving a viable political goal that can improve the standard of living of populations on each side of any border.

This workshop is supported by:

The NATO Science for Peace and Security Programme